

The Diabetes Care Centre is well underway

Two months after the start of the construction, the ground floor slabs of both parts of and the walls are up to first floor level.

Facilities for electricity and plumbing are being put in place at the same time.

The outline of the future building is already clearly visible along with the interior rooms including the consulting rooms and the courtyard.

The construction is, therefore, proceeding to schedule, with completion due for the e news and photos.